

LIFE INSURANCE

Protection for you and your family

Life insurance is one of the cornerstones of good financial planning. It protects your loved ones against financial loss in the event of your death. Life insurance provides access to many resources provided by MetLife through Geneva Benefits Group.

BENEFITS

- Protect the ones you love against financial loss in the event of your death
- Replace lost income and lessen the impact of costs associated with serious injuries, including medical bills, in the event of death due to an accident
- Use your insurance benefit to pay off debt or funeral costs, create an educational fund for your children, or even provide long-term care for a family member with special needs

TERM LIFE INSURANCE PLANS

- Geneva Basic Life and AD&D Plan
- Geneva Standard Life Plan
- Geneva Enhanced Life Plan
- Geneva Dependent Life Plan
- Geneva Voluntary AD&D Plan

In partnership with

MetLife

HOW MUCH INSURANCE DO YOU NEED?

According to the nonprofit Life and Health Insurance Foundation for Education, the answer isn't how much life insurance you need, but how much money your family will need after you're gone.

One simple way to start is by using the equation below. The amount of life insurance you need equals your current and future financial obligations minus your existing resources.

Current and Future Financial Obligations

—

Existing resources
(including survivors' earnings, savings and investments, and life insurance you already own)

=

Life Insurance Needed

BENEFIT AMOUNTS

- $25,000 for most active employees, $5,000 retired PCA Teaching Elders (without AD&D)
- If there is a death or defined loss due to an accident, your beneficiaries will receive an equal AD&D benefit in addition to the Basic Life Insurance benefit

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

- Full-time (minimum 30 hours per week) employee of PCA church or like-minded organization, living in the U.S.
- Enrollment in the Geneva Basic Life and AD&D Plan is a prerequisite to enrollment in any other Geneva Life or AD&D Plans

SCHEDULE A CONSULTATION

Our benefits advisors are ready to help you enroll and answer any questions. Schedule a call today by emailing benefits@genevabenefits.org.